

1.Problem Statement

Due to the ignorance of healthy food habits, obesity rates are increasing at an alarming speed.so there are many people's are affected by anxiety and health issues. It increase more cholesterol and it caused to heart attak.so the affected people should maintain the food calories and diet plan and so it is necessary to lead a healthy life.

2.Idea/Solution Description

In the case of, the user should know the nutrition value through web application,
1.The user should take the image of the food they need to known the nutrition value.
2.Then the user need to upload the taken food image in the upload image page.
3.After the user will check the nutrition value of the uploaded image in the view result page.

3.Novelty/Uniqueness

We will deliver a diet chart plan for individual based on their BMI, which calculated by the user in the BMI check option.

4.Social Impact/ Customer Satisfaction

Who visits our site and follow the nutritional food the user will easily overcome the obesity and make their physic good and healthy. If and only if they properly followed the nutritional food because our side information's are authentic and trusted one.

5.Business Model

We will advertise a premium option for the user's. then they unlock a nutrition consultant page then they will get the consultant session with their individual consultant. with we provide a best consultant among the cities.

6.Scalability of Solution

Our solution that we provide based on web application like client and server.so, here the solution scalability is about how long the server runs how long the client get response.